SHERIDAN'S RALLY.

Two years ago, comrades, you know. When treason had her say; When patriots true put on the blue, And rebels put on the gray.

When you and me, marched knee to knee, On bloody fields of strife; When side by side our souls were tried, To save the nation's life.

Then old rebel Early, so sturdy and barly, At the head of his army in gray; Amid shot and shell and the wild rebel yell Came tramping on his way.

With his rag he insulted our flag, As he drove us up the valley; When road-fence "Bill" came over the hill And routed our army to rally.

With saber in hand he gave the command: "Soldiers of the Union army, rally!" The boys faced about and with a wild shout, They charged down the Shenandoah valley.

As the army in blue, with its leader so true, Charged down the valley of death; The army in gray slowly marched away, Before their muskets' hot breath.

Amid bursting shot brave men fell, In the Shenandoah valley that day; And the rebel rag that insulted our flag, With its dead defender lay.

When darkness had spread her wing o'er the dead That lay in the valley that night, We called the roll and found many a soul Had fought his last fight.

Now this was in thirty-four and the war was near o'er!

For Sherman was nearing the sea; His banners were out ransacking about, And the chickens roosted high in the tree.

Now strange to say on this very day In the Garden City near by, A cowardly crew nation gray nor blue, Proclaimed to the world this lie:

"The war is a failure!"

With a wag of the head they counted the dead, And the expense it had been to the nation "They said 'twas best that the boys took a rest, So they demanded immediate cessation."

In a humble cot on a lonely spot, A soldier's wife sat weeping; In the papers she had read the names of the dead Which in the valley lay sleeping.

"This war is the price of a nation's vice," She said and she wiped away the rivers; Our nation gave the lie to the share For us only a burdened race.

Her little ones said, "Is poor papa dead?" And they wept and by their dear mother's side; And they wanted to know how long ago And in what battle he died.

"Oh, yes," she said, "your father is dead; He fell in the Shenandoah valley; But the boys all say he fought well that day That Sheridan made his rally."

—We hear less about the pleasant practice of New Years calling this year than ever before. Has the warm weather, or taken the poetry out of it or what is the reason.

—The funeral of Miss Julia Fallor will be held to-morrow morning at half-past ten o'clock, from the home of Mr. William Buck, on South Jackson street, the Rev. W. P. Brown officiating.

—The tenth anniversary of Crystal Temple of Honor of this city will be celebrated this evening at their hall in the Judd block, North Main street. Good music will be in attendance.

—Every body should see the game of polo to-night between the Galesburgs and Janesvilles. To-morrow the Galesburgs go to Racine where they play the champion "luggers" "The Lakesides."

—The family circle at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Marand, of the fourth ward, was increased yesterday evening by the late arrival of a bright-eyed, ten pound boy, and the head of the circle is correspondingly happy.

—There having been a rumor circulated that Mr. Fred Sperry would no longer play in the game to-night, we would say that the report has no foundation. The team will be the same as in last night's game.

—Every citizen is invited to be present at the meeting of the Business Men's club to-night, whether they are members or not. The Evansville railway matter is to be discussed, and a proposition from one of the roads will be considered.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

Regular Meeting of the Common Council.

Routine Business Considered and Bills Adopted.

A regular meeting of the common council was held last evening at the city hall, Mayor Winans being absent. President Croft occupied the chair, all the aldermen answering to the roll call except Ald. Daly, George, Judd and Rooney.

On motion of Ald. McLean the reading of the journal of the last meeting was dispensed with.

The clerk read a communication signed by the Janesville Cotton Manufacturing company, R. J. Richardson, C. W. Hodson, Phyllis Norcross, Shoppell & Norris, M. Hanson & Co., O. C. Ford, B. F. Crockett and M. G. Jeffris, asking for the passage of an amendment to ordinance No. 71, as received and placed on file.

The clerk read a number of bills against the various funds. Referred to appropriate committees.

Ald. Judd came in and took his seat. Ald. Burnham, of the finance committee, reported in favor of allowing sundry bills against the various funds, aggregating as follows:

General fund.....$ 6.00
First ward.....7.12
Second ward.....7.12
Third ward.....13.32
Fourth ward.....8.97
Fifth ward.....8.97
Fire department fund.....42.10
Bridge fund.....4.00
Total.....$101.71

The report was concurred in.

Ald. Burnham, of the same committee, reported back the November report of the city treasurer as correct. Placed on file.

Ald. McLean, of the fire department committee, to whom had been referred the matter of purchasing harness for the fire department, stated that the committee had examined the harness now in use and owned by the respective hose companies, and that it could be purchased—that of No. 1 company, including blanket and whip, for $20; that of No. 2 company, for $14; and on his motion the council voted to purchase the same, and the clerk was instructed to draw orders in favor of the above companies for the amounts named.

Ald. Croft, of the highway, street and bridge committee, stated that he had examined the highway at Monterey camped of by M. M. Phelps, and found the road in bad condition; that the fifth ward aldermen would cause the necessary repairs to be made at once, at least they would do all they could to make the road passable for the winter, and in the spring they would give it further attention and repair.

Ald. Burnham introduced an ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled: "An ordinance to prevent the obstruction of Rock river," passed September 23, 1892. (This amendment is the one referred to in the communication read by the clerk at the commencement of this meeting, and amends section 2 of ordinance No. 71, published ordinances.)

The section as now stands reads as follows:

SECTION 2. No person shall place in or throw into Rock river, within the limits of said city, any dirt, stone, ashes, or other substance or thing tending to obstruct the navigation of said river or the flow of said river.

If the amendment is passed it will read as follows:

SECTION 2. No person shall place in, or throw into, Rock river or into any mill race or tail race within the limits of said city any dirt, stone, ashes or other substance.

The object of the amendment is to get the ordinance in such shape that evidence will not have to be given that the "dirt, stone, ashes or other substances" placed in the river obstructed the flow of water, as the present ordinance requires.

On motion of Ald. Burnham the ordinance was read the first and second times and laid over under the rules.

Ald. Burnham, of the finance committee, presented orders instructing the city clerk to draw orders on the city treasury as follows:

T. T. Croft, labor on cemetery lots.....$ 45.00
J. A. Mount, horse collar for No. 3 hose.....50.00
J. A. Mount, harness for the fire department.....20.00
J. A. Mount, water works hose.....20.00
J. A. Mount, water works hose.....20.00
Total.....$135.00

The orders were adopted.

Ald. Fathens made a statement concerning the unhealthy location of the city post house, and on his motion, the question of securing a better location was referred to the board of health.

On motion of Ald. McLean the council adjourned.

VICTORIOUS VISITORS.

The Galesburgs Come Out Ahead Last Evening.

The Score Being 3 to 0 in Their Favor.

The result of the polo game last night was no surprise to any one, as it was universally conceded that the Riversides could hardly capture a goal. The boys played well, however, and it was conceded that in scientific playing they did the best work of the two. At nine o'clock the clubs took their positions as follows:

GALESBURGS. Position. RIVERSIDES.
Taylor.....Rushers.....Wyer
Benson.....Point.....Sperry
Twiggman.....Half Back.....Smith
Fisher.....Cover.....Brown
Hill.....Goal.....Shaller
Referee, F. L. Hayden.

From the first rush it was seen that the Janesville boys were over matched. They lacked practice, especially in accuracy of stroke and in quick turning, while the visitors were well up in these points. It was an interesting struggle, however, and the home team made many excellent plays. Daniels finally made the goal after several good stops by Brown and Shaller, the time being 2 minutes and 50 seconds. The next goal was a longer one and was only made by the visitors after considerable hard work. A number of stops were made for fouls, and to repair skates, and during a large part of the time the ball was near the Galesburg goal but the visitors thoroughly understood tending the cage, keeping the ball out very skillfully.

At last the sphere was sent to Daniels at the Janesville end and he, by an easy stroke, sent it past the Janesville goal tenda.

The time was 9:30.

The third goal was another short one. Two minutes and 50 seconds from the starting whistle the ball was in the Janesville cage and the game belonged to the visitors. The actual playing time was 15:10. A point where the Galesburgs are very strong is their quick, sharp hitting. While it looks very much like slugging still the ball is always sent to some other player, and not hit blindly. This practice saves much running, and the players are better able to make a rush when one is necessary. There are a number of other things which the home team might learn from them, especially in their play at goal. While guarding their own or while attacking their opponents cage, they showed great skill and coolness, although on the floor the Janesvilles proved to be their superiors.

After both teams had left the floor Referee Hayden announced that a goal should be credited to the Riversides because of the foul made by their opponents. This was afterwards disputed and a reference to the rules showed that no goal should be given as only two fouls had been made between any two goals. As many of our readers may not understand what the rules are regarding fouls we publish them:

16 It shall be deemed a foul: 1—If any player stops or strikes the ball when any part of his person is touching the surface; 2—If any player catches, strikes or bats the ball with his hands or arms; 3—If any player, save the goal tend, who may do so, kick the ball with his foot or skate; 4—If any player intentionally violate rule seven; 5—If any player stands, runs, or moves about on his ankles, toes or sides of his skates; 6—If any player holds another player on the surface or against the rail; 7—If any player start before the referee's whistle is blown; 8—If any player puts his stick between the arm and body of another player.

17. Any act by any player that is manifestly intended as an unwarrantable interference by one player with another, may be declared a foul by the referee from his own observation or upon complaint by the captain of the offended side.

18. Three fouls, other than when the ball leaves the bounds, made by either side during a contest for a goal, shall constitute a goal for the opposing side.

20. If the referee decides that a foul is made in the goal by the goal tend, or by any player taking his place for the time being, it shall be adjudged as a goal for the opposite team.

It will be seen that in order to lose a goal the three fouls must be made in what might be called one inning.

Masonic Installation.

At a regular communication of Janesville Lodge, No. 55, A. F. and A. M., held last evening, the following officers were installed:

W. M.—S. B. Kenyon.
S. W.—J. H. Balch.
J. W.—John Slightman.
Tyler—R. C. Yoemann.
S. D.—J. T. Wilcox.
J. D.—John Lloyd.
Sec'y.—D. T. Kenyon and Joseph Bleasdale.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the great Creator and Preserver of all things in his infinite wisdom to remove our brother, George Diehl, from this transitory existence to a state of eternal duration; therefore,

Resolved, That in his death we are reminded of the shortness of our earthly existence, and the great importance of being ready when the Grand Master of the Universe shall call us hence to that undivided country from whose home no traveler returns.

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Diehl this lodge has lost a good and faithful brother; the community an honest and upright business man, and the family a kind and affectionate husband and father.

Resolved, That this lodge extend their sympathies to the family of the deceased at this time of their great bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of the same be sent to the widow of our deceased brother.

EVANSVILLE.

—Christmas day passed off very quietly; our streets looked as they generally do Sundays, and most of the stores closed at noon. The attractions on Christmas eve were: An entertainment in the M. E. church, given by that society, at 8 P. M.; and the Baptists had an entertainment. On Christmas night the Congregational society had a social at Charles H. Wilder's, and Wood & Kendall had a grand opening of their skating rink, with about fifty in attendance.

James V. N. Smith is our new democratic postmaster, and will enter upon his duties about January 1st. An old soldier was turned out to give room for this democrat.

—The polo club play the Broadsides here Tuesday night of this week. The boys will likely get beaten again, as the Broadsides is a strong team.

—The prospect of skating rinks in this place for the future are very slim. A few ago this Christmas the rink of Wood & Kendall's rink were over fifty dollars, and this year the receipts were about seven dollars.

—At the M. E. church Christmas tree, Christmas eve, the one who was cutting up the grapes was hand a pair of clippers which he held up before the audience. (a silence prevailed) and read "Nothing small about A. Eager, No. 21."

—Rector J. E. Finn, exchanged pulpits with Rector C. M. Pullen, of Janesville, last Sunday.

—The Safety heater that was ordered to keep steam up in the fire engine boiler has proved a failure so far.

—This week is the time for all of us to turn over a new leaf, quit all bad habits. Try and be better in the year to come than the past.

—Miss Anna Bennett, daughter of J. M. Bennett, of Chicago, is very sick.

—Prof. C. N. Merriam was seen on our streets last Sunday.

—The good people of Cookeville will have a New Year's eve in the Masonic hall. Be careful boys and not get in any more fights.

—Union Lodge No. 32, I. F. and A. M. has elected and installed the following officers: John Anthony, W. M.; J. Boyd, Sec. of W. C. T. U. J. W. W. L. Quiver, Sec. R. F. Woolbury, Treas.; L. B. Seabe, S. D.; Fred W. Jolles, J. D.; M. V. Pratt, Trustee; Burt J. Denny, Tyler.

She Can Defy Death Now.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 29.—People in the vicinity of the Tracy block, on the public square, were startled about noon Monday at seeing a woman emerge from a third-story window, in that block, and jump head foremost to the sidewalk, sixty feet below. She struck upon a show case underneath, cutting a severe gash across the forehead, and fracturing her skull. She was conveyed to the city hospital, where it was learned that her name was Mary Dowd. The woman refused to give any cause for her action, and a thorough search of her rooms gave no clue. She will probably recover.

Narrow Escape from a Serious Disaster.

East Portland, Me., Dec. 29.—The north bound express on the Worcester & Nashua railroad, due here at 9 a. m. Monday, narrowly escaped derailment by the breaking of a piston rod when two miles south of this place. One end of the rod was plunged into the road-bed nearly throwing the train from the track, tearing into the tender, crushing the wood-work, and entering the water-tank. It also tore off the side of the cab. The fireman had a narrow escape. The train was delayed an hour and a half.
